TRAIN ALMOST 8 MILES LONG

Apples Produced in Adams County if Barreled and Placed in Single Train would Reach from Gettysburg to Biglerville.

Had all the apples harvested and shipped from Adams County this year been placed in freight cars and made into one train the line would have extended for seven and five sixths miles or almost from the station at Gettysburg to the station at Biglerville. The figures for the crop of 1911 have been compiled and show that the crop this year amounted to 176,995 barrels or 1180 carloads. In 1910 it amounted to 825 carloads showing an increase for 1911 of just about fifty per cent.

In 1911 there were shipped from Adams County over the Reading railroad 77,149 barrels or 514 carloads; and over the Western Maryland 40,596 barrels or 270 carloads. Cider was made from apples which if shipped in barrels would have filled 83 cars. Apples were evaporated at Biglerville, Bendersville and Littleton, which totalled 21,750 barrels and would have made 145 carloads if shipped in barrels. After being evaporated they made only eight carloads. There were canned at the Musselman plant 25,000 barrels or 167 carloads. After being canned they made 100 carloads. These figures will be a matter of much congratulation among the apple growers of the county for they show a very gratifying increase in the production.

The members of the Fruit Growers' Association held two well attended meetings in Thomas Brothers' Hall, Biglerville, on Saturday. In the afternoon E. D. Hilary, division freight agent of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad made an address on "Moving the Adams County Apple Crop." D. N. Minick, of Chambersburg talked on "Apple Package and Grade Legislation;" and C. A. Griest, of Gettysburg, on "Spring Spraying Problems."

Joseph W. Hunter, chief deputy state highway commissioner, told in an interesting way of the proper method of constructing and caring for country roads. Mr. Hunter said among other things that the first use to which the state road money would be put would be for the maintenance of the roads to be taken over under the Sproul act, all of which would be acquired by the state in June. The balance left after this was done is to be used for new road construction.

In the evening Dr. C. C. Ellis, of Juniata College, Huntingdon gave a lecture which was much enjoyed. The Gettysburg College Orchestra played. Robert M. Eldon, the president of the association, presided at the sessions and J. W. Prickett, the secretary, took an official report of the proceedings.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

C. D. Stallsmith returned home Saturday from the Harrisburg Hospital where he had been undergoing treatment for some weeks following a fall from the Meals house on Carlisle street where he fractured both arms. The left arm is entirely healed but Mr. Stallsmith will have to return to Harrisburg in April to have an operation on the other arm after which, it is hoped, the member will be restored to its original usefulness.

RETURNS FROM CIRCLING GLOBE

Samuel M. Bushman Returns after an Absence of almost Five Months Spent in Trip around the World. Had Delightful Time.

After an absence of almost five months during which time he visited many countries and scores of places of interest Samuel M. Bushman returned to Gettysburg this morning from his globe girdling trip. Mr. Bushman sailed from New York October 21 on the Hamburg-American steamship "Cleveland" and reached San Francisco on February 1. Since that time he has come east by easy stages, stopping at a number of places on his way.

The genial president of the First National Bank looks as though the trip was a wonderful benefit to his health and he says that he was not troubled by illness during his entire trip except at Madeira where he was taken ill from eating some tainted ham and at Honolulu where the extreme heat affected him.

Mr. Bushman tells in an interesting manner of his many experiences on the trip and nothing seems to have escaped him on the voyage. The narrow escape of the "Cleveland" when it collided with an American gunboat at Honolulu would have resulted most disastrously, according to Mr. Bushman, had his ship gone a few feet farther.

Of his visit to every port Mr. Bushman tells some interesting story and relates unusual privileges accorded to him and other members of the world tourists. On his trip he took a large supply of bullets from Gettysburg and gave these and books telling of the battlefield to members of the party. Mr. Bushman lost no opportunity to tell his fellow passengers of the beauties of Gettysburg and at several places gave talks on the battlefield.

The captain of the vessel gave him a certificate saying that he was the greatest navigator on the lines of the Hamburg-American Company, a document which Mr. Bushman prizes highly. He has now taken trips on four of his boats.

Upon his return home this morning he was warmly greeted by his Gettysburg friends who may count on him to entertain them for some weeks to come with accounts of various portions of his extended trip.

NO COLD WAVE IN SIGHT

There is nothing to indicate that a cold wave will cross the country this week, according to the weekly bulletin of the Weather Bureau.

"There will be," says the bulletin, "general, though gradual, reaction to normal temperatures over the region east of the Rocky Mountains Tuesday and Wednesday and moderate temperatures thereafter until the close of the week."

"A disturbance that now covers the West and Southwest will advance slowly eastward and cause a continuation of unsettled weather, with rains in Southern and snow in the Middle and Northern States east of the Rocky Mountains during the next several days. The next disturbance to cross the country will appear in the far West Thursday or Friday, and prevail over the Middle West at the end of the week."

PLANS NATIONAL BOARD OF TRADE
Taift Would Bring Business Men and Government Together.
HE CALLS A CONVENTION

President's Purpose is to Solve Problems of Trade Supremacy and to Expand Commerce.
Washington, March 4. — President Taft has taken the initiative in a movement to bring business men of the country into touch with the government for advice and counsel in the administration of laws, the enactment of new statutes and the development of commerce.
Virtually the president proposes a national board of trade broadly representative of the commercial and industrial organizations and of such character as the government may properly recognize by a charter from congress.
As one of the first steps in this plan, Secretary Nagel, of the department of commerce and labor, by direction of the president, has called a convention of delegates from commercial organizations in all parts of the country to meet in Washington on April 15 for discussion and to plan the organization.
Invitations have been sent to 1000 local chambers of commerce, boards of trade and other commercial bodies. Responses to the announcement of the tentative plan have been such that President Taft is convinced the time is ripe for putting the proposal to the test of practical experiment.
The president first recommended such a plan in a message to congress last December, in which he suggested that officials of the department of commerce and labor and members of appropriate congressional committees might be made members ex-officio of such an association.
In a statement President Taft outlines the purposes of such an organization. It would give to the government the opportunity to consult the business world on all problems of trade supremacy, it would afford co-operation in the expansion of commerce at home and abroad, and would provide a means by which government officers charged with the enforcement of laws could become acquainted with the complexities which surround their administration in the business world. Further than that, congress in framing new statutes affecting trade and commerce would have first-hand advice of an official nature.
In some respect the plan would not be unlike the German government's system of co-operation with boards of trade throughout the German states, although many of the features of that system probably would not be applicable here.

CLARK DRAWS COLOR LINE
Objects to Everyone, Without Regard to Color, Being Invited to His Party.
Washington, March 4. — Speaker Champ Clark's friends in Washington have planned to give him a birthday party at Convention hall on Thursday night, upon the occasion of his sixty-second anniversary.
In order to insure the success of the entertainment the committee in charge inserted an advertisement in a local publication urging "every man, woman and child without regard to color" to attend the celebration.
The publication of the advertisement caused considerable stir among southern delegates, who do not relish the idea of disregarding the color line. Speaker Clark's attention was called to the matter and he immediately ordered the discontinuance of the advertisement.

Burns May Kill Child.
Townsend, Del., March 4.—During the absence of her mother, who was spending the evening with a relative in town, Rebecca, the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bramble, was probably fatally burned. The little girl wanted to surprise her mother upon her return by having the supper all prepared. In some manner her dress caught fire. With her garments enveloped in flames the girl ran screaming from the house and started down the street. John Townsend, a neighbor, threw an overcoat around the blazing child, smothering out the flames. She is in a critical condition.

VINCENTASTOR NOT ENGAGED
Son of John Jacob Denies He Will Wed Musical Comedy Star.
Cambridge, Mass., March 4.—Vincent Astor, son of Colonel John Jacob Astor, and a freshman at Harvard, emphatically denies the published reports that he is to marry a popular Broadway musical comedy star, Miss Ina Claire.
"Nothing to it," states young Astor in talking of the report. "Miss Claire and myself are just good friends. I have met her several times, but as for any lingering attachment and that sort of 'mush' why, it's absolutely unfounded."

TIENTSIN MOBS BURN AND SLAY
Foreigners Flee to Legations For Safety.
GERMAN PHYSICIAN KILLED

Fires Are Raging on Both Sides of River in Tientsin and Pekin Mutineers Are Marching on the City.
Tientsin, China, March 4.—Mobs are burning and looting Tientsin. No distinction is being made between foreigners and natives, and the former are leaving the city as rapidly as they can. So far as is known only one alien has been killed, a German physician.
The consular body met and decided to place everything in the hands of the military commanders, as it is feared that the foreign settlements will be attacked.
Reports from Pekin say the conditions there are alarming. The mail train bound from Tientsin to Pekin was compelled to return to Tientsin.
A detachment of American troops arrived at Pekin and 200 French soldiers left Tientsin for the capital.
Pao-Ting-Fu has been burned and looted by the Chinese soldiers of the Sixth division, who are now marching on Pekin. The authorities have torn up a portion of the Pekin & Hankow railway in an effort to impede their progress.
The American women and children from all the missions have taken refuge in the large compound of the Methodist mission near the legation quarter in Pao-Ting-Fu.
At a meeting of the diplomats at Pekin it was decided to increase the legation guards by 1000 men.
There has been some incendiarism and shooting at Pekin, but everything is quiet at the foreign concession at the capital.
Fires are raging in Tientsin on both sides of the river. The Pekin mutineers are reported to be nearing the city, and at last accounts were only three miles from the native city, where the pillaging is still going on. The conditions there are expected to become worse.

BEHEADING THE LOOTERS
Scores of Rioters Are Being Executed in Pekin.
Pekin, March 4.—American, French and British reinforcements for the legation guards arrived here and more are on the way.
A detachment of legation guards to the number of 700 paraded the streets. The display was intended for a moral effect on the restless element. It evidently had the desired effect.
The summary beheading of looters caught continues, and it appears to be extremely efficacious in checking the sacking of stores and shops. The city is wonderfully quiet.
A battalion of American infantry is guarding the foreign missions.
The situation at Tientsin is reported to be critical. General looting is in progress and a German physician was killed while rescuing German women.
More than 100 looters and rioters were executed Sunday. None of those beheaded were soldiers, who are really the ones who are committing the outrages. Nearly all those killed were coolies, and there were six women among them.
Several policemen were beheaded.
A telegram from Pao-Ting-Fu says some missionaries were murdered during the riots there. The movement at Pao-Ting-Fu is largely against the foreigners.
